

Argonne National Laboratory (ANL)

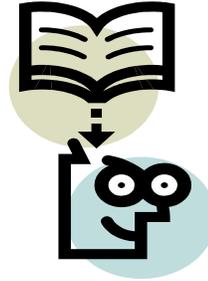

Educational Programs

ANL offers pre-college, college students and teachers many opportunities to participate in the Lab educational programs for:

Middle and High School Students

- ➔ Chicago Middle School Bowl
- ➔ Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day
- ➔ Learning Labs
- ➔ Workforce Development Project: "Science Careers" Video Conference Series
- ➔ Science Careers in Search of Women
- ➔ The Argonne Rube Goldberg Machine Contest
- ➔ Pre-College Research Participation Program

K-12 Teachers and Resources

K-12 Teachers

- DOE Summer Pre-School Teacher Internship
- Lab Science Teacher Professional Development Program
- The Science of Toys
- Amusement Park Physics Workshop

K-12 Teachers – Resources

- Argonne Community of Teachers (ACT)
- NEWTON
- GIS Illinois

Undergraduate and Graduate Students

Undergraduate Student

- DOE Science Undergraduate Laboratory Internships (SULI) & Student Research Participation Program
- Community College Institute
- Faculty and Student Teams (FaST) Program

Graduate Student

- Laboratory Graduate Research Appointments
- Thesis Parts Appointments
- Guest Graduate Appointments
- International Student Exchange Program

Undergraduate and Graduate

- Research Aide Appointments
- Cooperative Education DOE

